

Jane Carroll

Membership Director

Working in partnership with the Association's Membership & Accreditation Committee, Jane is responsible for leading the development and delivery of the Association's membership and inspections services. Jane also works alongside the Association's Professional Development Committee to plan and facilitate GSA's programme of one-day and residential courses and conferences.